

STYLE

SMART LIVING IN BALTIMORE

Inside the Mason
Dixon Master Chef Competition

Dining Solo: Local Foodies On Their Guilty Pleasures

Barbecue Judging 7 Stylish Kitchens

Jackets at Dinner?

Adventures in Cooking Contests

A Dramatic Mansion on the Severn
Re-creating a Classic Maryland Dinner

(Pasta and meatballs with sweet basil tomato sauce, page 40)

Food'10

Our annual look at what's cooking

November 2010
$3.95

www.baltimorestyle.com

the / zimmerman / agency (continued)

time travel

Style travels to the future—and the past.

> escape to the sun With Southwest coughing up budget-friendly direct flights from BWI to Jacksonville, Baltimoreans can now easily high-tail it down to Florida for a little warmth and sunshine. Rent a car and drive the half-hour to St. Augustine, America's oldest city, and stay at the registered-historical AAA Four-Diamond Award Casa Monica Hotel. Spanish architecture and luxury everything make it hard to consider leaving the rooms, but there's some hot old stuff to see in town, including a swank torchlight tour of Castillo de San Marcos (one of the oldest fortresses in America) and the Colonial Spanish Quarter (think Williamsburg with tapas!). casamonica.com □