

Step Back in Time in St. Augustine

The nation's oldest continuously occupied settlement is a popular getaway for weekend trips, weddings, anniversaries and family vacations.

Just 140 miles from Melbourne is the quaint historic town of St. Augustine. Time seems to slow down and history comes alive. Enjoy the history, beaches, arts, culture, shopping, and more.

Where to Stay:

The Casa Monica Hotel at 95 Cordova Street is the perfect spot in the middle of everything. The city's only AAA Four Diamond hotel resembles a Spanish castle with rich décor, luxurious accommodations and concierge service to attend to every need. The hotel's celebrated 95 Cordova restaurant features New World, Middle Eastern and Asian flavors. A more casual outdoor café offers a more relaxed atmosphere. Take a day to lounge by the pool in a cabana and take advantage of privileges at Serenata Beach Club. The Casa Monica Hotel is located at 95 Cordova Street, www.casamonica.com