MANSION AT FORSYTH PARK, SAVANNAH, GA.

There's tons to do around the city itself, but if you are staying awhile, be sure to arrange time to take advantage of the services at the Mansion (call for best deals). For a hands-on dining experience, the 700 Kitchen School is located just below the hotel's 700 Drayton restaurant. Guests can join in a scheduled cooking class or book a private lesson, where chef Darin Sehnert walks you through a three-hour culinary lesson that culminates in a tasty meal. When you've had your fill of dining, which also includes a jazz and blues bar, piano lounge and wine cellar, you can check out the abundant art collection at the property's gallery or unwind at the Poseidon spa (700 Drayton St., Savannah, Ga.; 888-213-3671).
