

Going Cowboy!

Kessler Canyon: A wildlife retreat set on 23,000 acres, Kessler Canyon, located in Debeque, Colo., offers year-round outdoor adventures. Horseback riding is just one of the experiences featured and can include lessons with a wrangler. Guests also can enjoy the wildlife habitat in an ATV, on mountain bike or on foot during hikes and nature walks. If you have a group that enjoys big-game and upland-bird hunting or fishing, this is an ideal spot. After a day in the great outdoors, the full-service spa helps to soothe sore muscles, and there is also a theater and game room for indoor fun.

Accommodations include a mountain-top bunkhouse and cabin for up to 14, private guestrooms at the Orchard Lake Homestead for up to 18, and the Orchard Lake Guest House with six private guestrooms. A number of packages are available, including a family package that features accommodations, snack basket upon arrival, kid's backpacks, DVD, all meals, picnic lunch, choice of fishing, ATV tour, canoeing or horseback ride daily, campfire with s'mores, and keepsake apparel.
