

christine breaux
WEDDING
STYLE

www.StyleMyWedding.info

Who's Who
in "I Do"

Glamour galore for
the wedding party
gems about jewels

plus... our favorite flowers, cakes, invitations and more

the / zimmerman / agency

(continued)

New Mexico

El Monte
Sagrado
Taos

Kessler Collection's group of breath-taking hotel properties around North America, the El Monte Sagrado gives guests the best of Taos, New Mexico and the best that a luxury hotel property has to offer. A decorative design blend of Native American elements and exoticism, the 84-room property offers the choice of casitas, suites or private guestrooms, with painted walls and natural mountain views on the horizon. The hotel is designed to function as a feast for the eyes in relation to the artwork, with the Grand Bohemian Gallery showcasing a unique collector-worthy exhibit.

Food and drink are a focal point at El Monte Sagrado, whether they provide a relaxing environment for quiet conversation or a livelier atmosphere for laughing and dancing. The property offers the AAA Four-Diamond De la Tierra for exquisite cuisine and wines in an inspiring architectural setting. Enjoy the lush indoor beauty of The Gardens, or partake in crafted cocktails at the Anaconda Bar while listening to live entertainment.

During the day, you can certainly partake in pampering at the spa on property, but Taos as a city, offers a rugged landscape in which to play. The hotel staff is happy to assist in setting up daily activities, whether you want to catch a higher view from a hot air balloon, enjoy a rigorous day of alpine skiing at 11,800 feet or take a spring hike among extensive plant and wildlife native to the high terrain desert. Fly fishing, canoe trips and rock climbing round out a long list of activities available in multiple seasons here. There are ample art museums, couture shopping and multiple parks for lounging the afternoon away.

People come to New Mexico for a variety of reasons; natural healing, extreme sports, fine dining, museums and shopping excursions. At the El Monte Sagrado, the Kessler Collection has ensured that each need is met, with particular attention to honeymooning couples. It's the best that Taos and this esteemed hotel collective has to offer.

For more information log onto www.elmontesagrado.com or call 1.888.213.4419 or 1.575.758.3502